Dear Joe,

I filed an Objection to the Settlement Proposal made by Lehman and the Pension Benefits Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) that was referred to in Court proceedings on June 3rd. Justice Peck, per a transcript that I received from Weil, Gotshal, was kind and considerate to determine if I was in Court that day. I was dissuaded from attending by Sarah Eagle, and Colin Altbough of the PBGC and an attorney from Weil, Gotshal.

Per those attorneys, it was suggested that I file a claim with the Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. bankruptcy proceedings, as well as the claim I filed with the Lehman Brothers, Inc. proceedings. I received a Proof of Claim form, in the mail, a few weeks later. I have enclosed two copies of my subsequent filing of that form, to complete your files. If you wish, you can forward one to James Giddens.

Joe, again, thank you for your assistance in making sure my original claim was as complete as I could make it (Claim # 900000894). As I state in the last paragraph of the "Clarification of Claim" attached, I've tried to make complete disclosure of my claims and would not want any "double dipping". I want only the monies I feel I have a right to receive.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

George E. Di Russo
Vice-President (Retired)
Lehman Brothers, Inc.

Clerk of Court

*Please note attached letter was included
by attorney with file Claim # 6591, not 5884.*

It gives reason for not including claim as a Pension benefit, although beneficiary received funds only after 70 1/2 years of age.
